

With all of the intrusions into my privacy, I was happy to see that Wisconsin stood up and put in a very strict NO CALL process. I now see that as usual, there are those with personal interest that are trying to water it down to serve themselves. My telephone is in my hope for MY convenience and NOT for the convenience of those trying to sell me something. PLEASE stand up and keep the law as it is!